Because of the nature of the work, this employment is exempt from the provision of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and associated Order. Applicants are not, therefore, entitled to withhold details of any criminal convictions, cautions or warnings, which for other purposes might be considered "spent". Checks will be made against police records in respect of those applicants selected for appointment, in accordance with Home Office Joint Circular 86/44. Information given will be kept confidential and will only be used in relation to the application for the job.

Have you ever had any convictions/police cautions or warnings (including spent convictions)? YES/NO

If yes, give details on a separate sheet of paper (attached in a sealed envelope marked "confidential" if you prefer).
